JENNIFER BLANDA &
MARK NEWHEISER

Jennifer Blanda and Mark Newheiser bonded over a mutual love of board games. After dating for a year, Mark pulled out all the stops with a carriage ride that ended with a proposal at Five Sixty. The couple chose Perkins Chapel for their ceremony, then focused on the little touches, like hand-written vows and a song performed by his brother and her sister, to make the ceremony special. For the reception, it was off to the Adolphus, and "it was spectacular," says Jennifer. The happy couple had the beautiful, romantic, and fun wedding of their dreams.
